2020 MDC Document Retention Schedule

The purpose of the Retention Schedule

A retention schedule is a list of records which need to be retained by Local Government for a designated period of time.

The retention schedule shows:

- i. the title of each record which it creates in the course of its business;
- ii. a time period for which records are to be retained and the action which should be taken when it is of no further administrative use; and
- iii. identifies the reason (legislative, regulatory and/or operational) on which retention is based.

The existence of the retention schedule is a requirement of Maldon District Council's corporate Document Retention Policy. It has been developed in collaboration with Service Managers. The retention schedule refers to all information, regardless of the media in which it is stored, i.e. manual files, computer files, tapes, microfiche, etc. Where records are sentenced for destruction all back-up copies or copies stored on alternative media must also be destroyed. The retention schedule provides consistent instructions for all staff who deal with records, and a formal policy for records retention and disposal.

The purpose of the schedule is to:

- i. prevent the premature destruction of records that need to be retained for a specified period to satisfy legal, financial and other requirements of public administration;
- ii. assist in identifying records that may be worth preserving permanently as part of the Maldon District Council's archives; and
- iii. provide consistency for the destruction of those records not required permanently after specified periods.

Members of staff are expected to manage their current record keeping systems using the Retention Schedule and to take account of the different kinds of retention periods when they are creating new record keeping systems. The Schedule is a 'living document' and will be reviewed and amended as and when retention details change due to Council policy, if new information is created, to remove any obsolete record titles, or regulations and legislation that govern information and its use are introduced or altered.

Using the retention schedule

Where records have been identified for disposal they should be disposed of in an appropriate way. All records containing personal information, or sensitive information should be disposed of using secure waste sacks or shredded after administrative use.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Council to maintain a list of records which have been destroyed and who authorised their destruction.

Members of staff should record at least:

- File reference (or other unique identifier);
- File title (or brief description);
- Number of files;
- The name of the authorising officer; and
- Date of destruction.

2020 MDC Document Retention ScheduleRetention Schedule and the Freedom of Information Act (2000)/Environmental Information Regulations (2004)

The Freedom of Information Act (2000) and Environmental Information Regulations (2004) are intended to promote a culture of openness and accountability amongst public authorities by providing people with rights of access to records held by Maldon District Council. With the introduction of this legislation the Lord Chancellor issued a Code of Practice to be followed by public organisations using his powers under Section 46 of the Freedom of Information Act (2000). This guidance sets out his views on desirable practice for the retention, management and disposal of public authority records. The Code of Practice includes a requirement to develop and apply Document Retention Schedules within the organisation. The Retention Schedule is a requirement of the Freedom of Information Act (2000).

Retention schedule

The Data Protection Act (2018) requires that personal data shall be:

- used fairly, lawfully and transparently
- used for specified, explicit purposes
- used in a way that is adequate, relevant and limited to only what is necessary
- accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date
- kept for no longer than is necessary
- handled in a way that ensures appropriate security, including protection against unlawful or unauthorised processing, access, loss, destruction or damage

These principles require the Council to have procedures in place, covering the review of information held on files.

Retention schedules assist with compliance under the Data Protection Act, which requires us to keep personal data no longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was collected. The time limits for keeping records are based on statutory requirements, common business practice, and national guidance and best practice (the Retention Guidelines for Local Authorities (RGLA), a guide produced by the Records Management Society of Great Britain).

In some parts of the retention schedule the recommended retention period given is 6 years. This is based on the 6 year time limit within which legal proceedings must be commenced as laid down in the Limitation Act 1980. It should also be noted that, under this Act, civil action could be taken up to 12 years following certain events.
